Family Holiday Sing-A-Long

Polansky's music is frequently humorous, sometimes serious, and always clever and engaging. He has won numerous awards including the coveted Artists' Foundation Fellowship, Music City Song Festival, Sheet Music Magazine Grand Prize, and others. His Animal Alphabet Songs were spotlighted on Morning Edition on National Public Radio. His instrumental and choral pieces have been performed by the Springfield (MA) Symphony, The Zamir Chorale, The Tommy Dorsey Orchestra and many others.

Holiday Jam & Gift Wrapping

Running out of time to wrap your holiday gifts? Stop into the library's Children's Room on Monday, December 16th from 6:30 to 7:30 PM for some fun with your family while our Teen Advisory Group will do your gift wrapping for you!

Children can snuggle in for a winter story time and then make a holiday craft. While your family is having fun, leave your gifts with our teen elves at the gift wrapping station – put on by the Teen Advisory Group.

Bring in gifts you need wrapped in a clearly labeled bag (with your name on it and a list of which names go with which gifts) and they'll do the work for you! There is a limit of five gifts per person. Gifts will be wrapped in the order they are brought in.

And don't forget to wear your ugly holiday sweater! We'll be having an Ugly Sweater Contest for those who want to participate. Ugly sweaters are encouraged, but are not mandatory!

Registration is not required.
