Learn With Bridgewater State University's Asian Studies Department

In this virtual live (Zoom) program, participants will learn basic Japanese from watching clips of Academy Award Winning Anime films. Learn about Japanese culture as well, with practical demonstrations of Origami, Rice Ball making, and Japanese Pancakes, all of which can be tried at home.

This series is led by Bridgewater State University's Asian Studies Department faculty. Join all three sessions or register for what fits your schedule. August 4, 11, and 18th, from 11 AM - 12 Noon. Participants can pick up free program materials from the library starting on July 27th.

Register on the library's event calendar, <https://www.plymouthpubliclibrary.org/events/>. The Zoom link will be sent to you one day prior to the program.
