For each production, John designs and creates all of his own puppets, which range from small hand puppets to larger than life size figures. He also manipulates the entire cast and provides the voices and sound effects as well.

The Pumpnickel Puppets have had the honor of appearing at The Smithsonian Institution, Washington, DC, The Center for Puppetry Arts, Atlanta, GA and the prestigious International Festival of Puppetry sponsored by the Jim Henson Foundation in New York.

July Movies

Newly released on DVD movie. Join us on Wednesday, July 10th for a showing of American Fiction.

American Fiction confronts our culture's obsession with reducing people to outrageous stereotypes. Jeffrey Wright stars as Monk, a frustrated novelist who's fed up with the establishment profiting from "Black" entertainment that relies on tired and offensive tropes. To prove his point, Monk uses a pen name to write an outlandish "Black" book of his own, a book that propels him to the heart of hypocrisy and the madness he claims to disdain only for it to be mistaken for serious literature and published to high sales and critical praise. MRC ~ 1 hour, 40 mins ~ Rated R

The first showing is at 2:00 pm and the second showing at 6:00 pm in Logan Auditorium on the Upper Level of the library.

Oscar Nominated Movie. So many of this year's Oscar Nominees ran so long we don't have enough time to show them in the evenings before we close! So we're making special time to show some longer-than-usual-nominees. Early. On Friday mornings!

Join us on Friday, July 19th at 10:00 am in Logan Auditorium for a screening of Anatomy of a Fall, nominated for five Oscars.

In an isolated mountain chalet near Grenoble, novelist Sandra Voyter decides to reschedule her interview with a female student because her husband, university lecturer Samuel Maleski, plays music loudly in their attic, disrupting the interview. After the student drives away from the chalet, Samuel and Sandra's visually impaired son, Daniel, takes a walk outside with his guide dog Snoop. When they return home, Daniel finds Samuel dead from an apparent fall. An investigation leads to a conclusion of "suspicious death": it's impossible to know for sure whether he took his own life or was killed. Sandra is indicted, and we follow her trial which pulls the couple's relationship apart. Daniel is caught in the middle: between the trial and their home life, doubts take their toll on the mother-son relationship.
